LAKE LOUISE AND THE CHATEAU

THE Canadian Pacific Rockies form one of the most magnificent mountain playgrounds in the world. They comprise 650 mountain peaks 6,000 feet or more in height, generally snow-covered the year round, rich in glaciers and rivers, and rising from beautiful forests.

Six of Canada's national parks are on, or reached from, the Canadian Pacific.

Every kind of outdoor recreation is at your command—mountain-climbing, trail-riding, fishing, hunting, golf, hiking, swimming and tennis.

At Banff, Lake Louise, Emerald Lake (near Field), Glacier and Sicomous are splendid Canadian Pacific Hotels—supplemented at nine other points by delightful bungalow camps.
